Representative Hopkins of Kentucky introduced in the house an immigration bill which he believes would bar thousands of undesirable foreigners seeking admission into the United States.

Senator Linn's bill regulating the sale of patent medicines and limiting the amount of alcohol in them was referred to Dr. Watson, of the committee on Public Health, to investigate and report.

What a glorious record? Whom be next? "Another otherwise promising young man of this county went last week, suddenly and prematurely, to his grave, with twenty-five cigarettes a day to his credit."—Marsville Public Ledger.

Gov. Patterson, of Ohio, is being treated by two physicians of different schools, who never consult with each other or call at the same hour.
On his inauguration day the Governor was put into a glass case to prevent his taking cold, and it now looks like the best case would be furnished by an undertaker.

Senator Conn Linn has completed the work of redrafting Senator Charlton's bills seeking to regulate the crime of robbery and burglary. Among the alterations made by Senator Linn is to change the penalty for feloniously entering a house from the death penalty to imprisonment for not less than ten and not more than twenty years.

An erroneous impression seems to exist in some parts of the country regarding the scope of the rural free delivery service. Although the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General has recommended that mail matter be permitted to be addressed to rural boxes, according to their numbers, and not to any particular individual, the same as in postoffices, the Postmaster General has not as yet given his approval to the same. As the matter now stands, unless mail is specifically addressed to parties residing on rural routes, it will not be delivered.

The NEWS is indebted to Senator Watson for public documents.
C. Brock Hill, formerly of Wlaheer, has gone to Huntington and has become a citizen of West Virginia.

en of" candidates for Congress from

The act proposing a diploma from the State A and M College to enable persons to teach in common schools without further examination, if they continue in school work, and that a at the college exempted from attending county institute, has passed the House and Senate.

In the House at Washington the Adams bill, providing for the establishment of the whipping post for white-baiters in the District of Columbia, was laid on the table by a vote of 155 to 98. The bill was the subject of ridicule from a number of speakers, among them Mr. Stanley, of Kentucky. And the Big Sandy News is glad to notice that Mr. Hopkins, of Kentucky, voted against laying the bill on the table.

That period in the life of the Legislature has been reached where it is necessary to transact business and immediately after the adjournment Monday the Committee on Rules met and decided that the House would hold afternoon sessions. Beginning Tuesday the Legislature will be in the home stretch. It will adjourn on March 12, leaving just twenty eight working days, or cutting out Washington's birthday, which is assumed. Since the weather has been so cold, it is not surprising that the bulk of the legislation remains to be done.

The NEWS has very little patience with and much less use for the so-called Democratic newspapers in Kentucky which are everlastingly throwing mud at what they are pleased to call the "machine"—meaning thereby Governor Beckham and other State officials. It is reasonably expected, and our expectations have not been vain, that the Republican newspapers would be full of this sort of thing, but the Democratic editors who have failed to get what they wanted for themselves or their friends have descended to depths of slandering and calumny not yet reached by any Republican paper in the State, the Louisville Post only excepted. What some of these sore-headed Democratic editors have written during the past twelve months will make excellent material for the next crop of Republican campaign speech-binders, and they will not be slow to use it.

Capt. Jack Littlehouse reports that duces a very fine quality and is 32 by a "slope."

Andrew Birker, a well-known resident of Elizabethtown, over to Harlan, Ky., Feb. 5—Just before the beginning of the present term of the Circuit Court here eight prisoners escaped from the Harlan county jail by means of a key they made to the jail lock. One of them, Thomas Clark, was charged with murder and had just been captured after a reward of $200 had been offered for him. None of the escaped prisoners have been recaptured except John Laidford, who was in jail for some trivial offense.

He is reported to be the one who made the key and escaped the whole lot.

The Jar of Coughing Hammer blows, steadily applied, break the hardest rock.
Coughing, day after day, jars and tears the throat and lungs until the healthy tissues give way. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral stops the coughing, and heals the torn membranes.
"I always keep a jar of Cherry Pectoral in the house. It gives prompt relief and is so pure and healthy. I have used it for a great many years and it is the best remedy I have ever known."—Wm. W. HARRIS, New York, N. Y.

On Tuesday night about 10 o'clock the jail door was broken open and four of the prisoners escaped, and one of them named Jack was captured the following day. Two prisoners would not try to get away, but remained in the jail—Martin and O.
Zelle.

Owensville, Feb. 12—It was said today that the Leona National Bank of Morehead, Rowan county, which recently resumed business after a suspension of several weeks will accept no more deposits, but will pay depositors $10000 left at the time of the suspension and when that is gone will liquidate with the Mercantile bank.
This is still to be seen in Rowan county.

THE FARM.

COW TALK.

A dairy cow should give milk for at least 300 days in every 12 months. Do not send the cow out into the pasture till the grass has obtained a good start. A pinch of salt after each feed will make the cows lick the mangers to the very corners. Meat of the profit hinges on the cow feed of the cow, provided you have a good cow to start with. A moderate temperature in the cow stable promotes comfort, if not obtained at the expense of good air. The heifer having her first calf should be carefully handled, as it is at this time her habits of milking and feeding are established. Many cows that are in good flesh now will come out in the spring so poor that they will have to stand twice in one place to make a shadow, all because of shortage of winter feed.

DISPOSITIONS OF COWS.

Cows differ as much in their dispositions as human beings. Any farmer that has handled a large number of cows will have run across the stubborn cow, the affectionate cow, the motherly cow, and even the bossy cow. Some of these qualities are good and some are bad. A man should try to eliminate the bad qualities and encourage the development of the good ones in the selection of the cows for the continuation of his herd.

FALSE ECONOMY.

If one has profitable cows, it won't pay to allow them to get out of condition by economizing on feed; and if they are not all profitable, now is the time to do some effective culling, and thus save feed for the paying animals.—Farm Journal.

GIVE COWS LIGHT.

Do not keep cows in a dark, gloomy place. Have the stalls where the sun will shine in, butten all cracks and make the stable as warm as possible.—Farmers' Voice.

FARM-MADE MANURE.

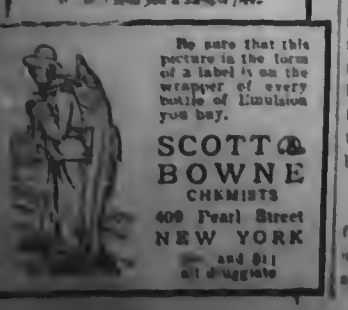

The farm-made manure is the best all-around fertilizer the farmer can use.

SEED TIME

The experienced farmer has learned that some grains require far different care than others; some crops need different handling than others. He knows that a great deal depends upon right planting at the right time, and that the soil must be kept enriched. No use of complaining in summer about a mistake made in the spring. Decide before the seed is planted.

The best time to remedy existing conditions in the human body is before the evil is too deep rooted. At the first evidence of loss of flesh Scott's Emulsion should be taken immediately. There is nothing that will repair wasted tissue more quickly or replace lost flesh more abundantly than Scott's Emulsion. It nourishes and builds up the body when ordinary foods absolutely fail.

No one that has taken this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Scott's Emulsion.

Town and County.

There ought to be the very closest relationship between the county and town, and the mayor, because in a very large measure the county depends upon the town for its revenue. The county and town are as a rule entirely too independent of each other.

AN ACRE FOR THE BOY. I believe in giving the boy or girl an acre or two of good land close to the house upon the farm, and standing that I am to furnish the plot, and seeds to stock the plot, and the boy or girl to plant it.

CUT UP PART OF THE HAY. Part of the hay may be cut and mowed before feeding, the remainder being fed long as the carriage horse has plenty of time for masticating his food.

THINK HOW THE FIRST COLD DAYS of winter make us hurry into our overcoats; then do the fair thing with the stock. They can't help themselves so we must keep them all snugly and cozy.

FROZEN POTATOES.

If the potatoes freeze, do not allow them to thaw. Keep them frozen until used, or else bury them in the ground. For cooking while frozen, simply boil in water. Apples should be kept from the air, and the frost is out. If they are to be used while frozen, pare and slice them into boiling water. The pieces will remain white when cooked, but if left out they turn brown.

TRY IT.

When a calf is taken away to be butchered, if a string (twine of any kind) is put into its blood and then tied around the cow's neck, the cow frets over the calf, and the calf is not so easily killed.

Fill up a cow with ice-cold water, and allow her to stand in the winter winds for an hour afterward, and you will be surprised to find how quickly she will respond to the treatment by taking out of the milk pail.—Farm Journal.

Although it is still the "dead of winter," with a prospect of several months between us and the spring blossoms, it is full time that our seed and plant orders are made out. The catalogue may now be had for the asking, many seeds of our most desirable flowers and vegetables must be planted in the house in January and February, in order to have them ready to transplant when the outdoor season arrives. These must be ordered now. To get the best services of your seedman, order as early as possible, and send in your order in your lists in January or February. Their stock is then full and the rush of the latter months is not yet come, then, having a full supply to choose from, and time to give the orders personal or at least expert attention, the seedmen are inclined to be more liberal and the best of everything goes into the early order. Later, the stock becomes reduced, and often incompetent help must be employed, and it stands to reason that one is not so well served. If the list is sent in now, the seedmen will only send such as can be safely intrusted to the mails or express companies, keeping back the tender plants and tubers or buds until danger of frost is over. It is best to send your lists now.
